CODE OF CONDUCT

Date: _____

The North Bay – Mattawa Conservation Authority's Enviro Camp strives to create a safe and caring community, built upon the NBMCA's character values of honesty, responsibility, caring and respect. We want all children to feel welcomed and accepted.

The basic rules of camp are simple. We ask that campers:

- Be respectful of other campers and staff.
- Be honest and forthcoming in interactions with campers and staff.
- Be responsible with NBMCA Enviro Camp equipment and property.
- Be caring towards themselves and others.

All of the staff at the NBMCA want your child's stay to be safe and enjoyable. By following and abiding by the rules and guidelines your camp experience promises to be memorable. Please review the agreement with your child, sign and send the agreement along with your registration form to the NBMCA Enviro Camp.

CAMPER BEHAVIOR AGREEMENT

1. I will be respectful of everyone at camp.
2. I will not swear or speak disrespectfully of campers or staff
3. I will not bully, harass or fight with other campers or staff.
4. I will respect the property of others by asking to share and I will not steal.
5. I will follow the rules and instructions of the staff.

PARENT/GUARDIAN AGREEMENT

I understand that my child's behavior can affect the experience of other campers and that poor behavior will not be tolerated. By signing this agreement, I understand that if at any time my child's behavior is not in accordance with the camp rules, it will be discussed first with myself or my child's designated guardian. Lack of resolution to any problems will result in the removal of my child from the NBMCA's daycamp program. The NBMCA will issue a refund for any remaining days minus a 20% Administration fee.

The North Bay – Mattawa Conservation Authority, Enviro Day Camp, NBMCA staff, volunteers or their agents will not be liable to or for loss of property.
